TIME-24 hours a day,365 days a year.Passing quickly-so quickly it's gone before you've noticed.Time is necessary for our rulers to become rulers by making us subverviant to their clock -'musn't be late','punctuality is important';so people are run off their feet keeping to some clock constantly telling them that they're late.So so even in our restricted leisure time,we do a lot of resting (rotting)

Keeping to a schedule,being punctual makes stress;stress makes headaches,headaches make more stress,stress makes nervous conditions,makes ulcers,makes heart disease,makes death.

In the Victorian age,childfen were forced to work in factories and in coal mines & A high percentage of the working population died at around 40 years old because of the hours they were made to work and the conditions they were made to work in by their benevolent employers (or rather malevolent employers).For example,some worked as much as 18 hours a day,leaving 6 hours in which to attempt to get enough sleep to be ready to start again.Combined with the filth and squalor of their working conditions plus the cruelty of their employers (beatings for children-wage cuts for adults),the mortality rate was accordingly high.Fortunately this disgusting manipulation of poor by the rich has now ended...But for how long? Whilst the pound sign and the clock's tick still rule,there is always the chance.

As longs as we are forced to 'keep to the clock'-to sacrifice our own time to punctuality,to the time the boss wants you-we will rely on pills,depressants,cigarettes and other statecontrolled sense dullers and we will die before our time.

THE ALARMING CLOCK.

ANSWERS???

WHILST READING THIS, YOU MAY BE WONDERING IF I HAVE AN ANSWER(S) TO THE POINTS THAT ARE RAISED IN "PYRRHONIC". TO THIS I WILL ANSWER a) IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO ANSWER ANYTHING WITHOUT KNOWING THE QUESTIONS SO, I DON'T KNOW THE ANSWERS UNTIL WE HAVE FOUND WHAT THE QUESTIONS ARE. YOU CAN SAY THAT LIFE IS THE QUESTION- THIS IS IN MY OPINION THE MOST INTELLIGENT IDEA AS NO ONE HAS EVER DISCOVERED THE CORRECT WAY TO LIVE. b) MANY PEOPLE USE ANARCHISM AS AN ANSWER. I AGREE WITH ALL THE CONCEPTS OF TRUE ANARCHISM (I.E. PEACE+EQUALITY), BUT I DO FEEL IT CAN BECOME AN OVERUSED WORD AS WELL AS I THINK ACCEPTING LABELS TOO EASILY GETS PEOPLE PUT YOU DOWN TOO SOON + GIVES YOU NO CHANCE TO EXPRESS ANYTHING. E.G. THE MUSIC PRESS HAS IMMEDIATELY FOUND THE CONVENIENT LABEL 'ANARCHO-PUNK BAND' FOR ANY MUSICIANS WHO PLAY SONGS WHICH HAVE FEELING AND OPPOSE ALL OF THE HYPOCRITICAL 2 FACED STANDARDS PREVIOUSLY MADE AND I ALSO THINK THAT PEOPLE OFTEN THINK THAT BY SCRAWLING (A)'S THEY ARE BEING TERRIBLY SUBVERSIVE. THE STATE OF EXISTENCE WE SEEK MAY BE CALLED ANARCHY, WE ALL HAVE DIFFERENT WAYS OF REACHING THAT GOAL. MY PERSONAL BELIEF IS THAT WE ARE NOT GOING CHANGE THE 'SYSTEM' BY THROWING PETROL BOMBS AT IT. AT SOME POINT, PASSIVE RESISTANCE MUST BE NECESSARY - BUT IF AT ALL POSSIBLE I THINK VIOLENCE MUST BE AVOIDED AS IT IS JUST PLAYING THE STATE'S GAME.

THERE MUST BE CHANGE. THIS SOCIETY IS SLOWLY FALLING TO PIECES AROUND US. THESE NEOPLE WE CALL POLITICIANS SHOW LITTLE CONCERN FOR US - I CAN'T SEE ANY REASONABLE FUTURE IN CONTINUED TRUST IN POLITICIANS. THE CHANGE IS NOT JUST BY REMOVING AUTHORITY - IT HAS ALSO TO BE A CHANGE IN OUR PERSONAL ATTITUDES TO GIVE ANOTHER. WE MUST LEARN TO RESPECT OUR INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM - WE MUST WIPE OUT THE BARRIERS THAT DIVIDE US TO A CERTAIN EXTENT, WE MUST COMPROMISE. THE ANSWER IS NOT MINE TO GIVE YOU. THE ANSWERS WITHIN EACH OF US. TO FIND THE ANSWER WE MUST OPEN OUR EYES AND LIVE INSTEAD OF SLEEPING AND DYING.

HAVE YOU NO RESPECT FOR LIFE?AS YOU TAKE RAPE AND DESTROY THAT WHICH IS NOT YOUR OWN KIND YOU'VE FIRMLY SECURED YOUR WALL OF ARROGANCE THE MEAT ON YOUR PLATE IS THE PRODUCT OF YOUR IGNORANCE NOW THE SKINNED CORPSES HANG LEGLESS AND BEHEADED THIS SICKNING PERVERSION WHICH YOU HAVE ACCEPTED THE BLOOD GUTS AND FLESH THAT HAVE BEEN MANGLED ON THE ABBOTOIRS FLOOR REMINDS ME OF YOUR BATTLEFIELDS WHICH YOU ALSO CHOOSE TO IGNORE.....

Through strenuos and endless efforts by society and our parents we have through our arrogance and ignorance become hostile towards other forms of life.From a young age we are bribed into believing that meat is an essential part of our daily diet,without it we are told we would simply starve and eventually die, These like every other excuse that people use to try and justify the eating of animals is nothing but 'old wives tales'.By refuseing to take part in the slaughter of innocent animals you are showing your concern and disgust,every-time you eat a meal which does not consist of meat it is ineffect a direct attack at the values and traditions that society has been built on.We have the choice,the animals have none.Are we the responsible human beings that we would like to think we are?or are we the barbarious,irresponsible murderers that society covers up?Canabalism has been and to this day still is in the eyes of the public a form of barbarianism and paganism and although a human eating another human is inhumane,each day the majority of people will sit down to some disguised piece of flesh,and not one will have a guilty consience nor will they question their actions or see the contridiction.Vegetarianism is an alternative we can choose to take.By refuseing to eat animals one shows their respect for life and acknowledges the rights of every living animal to live on this earth a natural and healthy life with as less interferance from humans as possible.You are not only showing your disgust and horror of the insane slaughter of animals for food you are also protesting at the way in which it has found it's way onto someones dinner plate,It is a very rare sight to see cows graze on an open field for most of them are hidden from human eyes in the shape of factory farms.In these farms the cow will spend all it's life in crowded conditions standing or sitting in a pen where it will not even have enough space to stand side ways and nearly always it's enviroment will be total darkness.The cow will never see daylight,the only time it will is when it is being carted off to the slaughter house.Over 1oo ooo cattle are slaughtered in daily in the u.s.a. alone.80 percent of the crops grown in Britain are not fed to the population but are given to cattle to fatten them for the slaughter. While crowded in their closely confined corrals they get little or no exercise at all so most of the food they eat their body produces as fat.As it finds it's way out of the other end of the cow it is reproduced and mixed with asome cement then is given to the cow as food.Hens are packed into small cages where with any comfort at all only three or four could fit in but as many as nine have to live the rest of their lifes in these dreadful conditions.As a result of the closely confined space that they have to endure,the hens peck and trample over eachother bruising the flesh and as bruised flesh won't look to good displayed in a shop window their beaks are at an early age cut off.These are only a small percentage of the crulties that animals have to suffer before they are slaughtered.School books potray cows,pigs and hens to be freely running around the farm yard in natural and spaceous conditions.The child therefore believes that once the animal has reached their plate it has lived a normal,happy and healthy life.Although many children at an early stage in their lifes refuse to eat meat they only become accustomed to eating the flesh of animals by the endless and strenuous efforts of their parents,who think if they don't eat meat they will grow up to be unhealthy and weak.By becomeing a vegetarian you will be more and likely open to verbal attack from meat eaters.It is through their basic ignorance and prejudice towards nonhumans that people see nothing wrong in eating the flesh of other animals.Through generation after generation of conditioning and prejudice towards non humans our society has become ignorant and through endless acceptance of specism hostile towards vegetarianism.'but how can we reduce the suffering of animals by becoming vegetarians?'which is a question that is often asked and simple to answer.The number of animals raised and slaughtered for human consumption depends on the demand ~~on the~~ for meat and thecprofits the compoony will make.So if there is a fewer demand for the product then obviously there will be a reduction in the profits made,therefore fewer animals will be reared for slaughter.Another question which is often asked is that,'if everyone became vegetarians then people would eventually starve and there would be a population boost in the animal kingdom.'Ineffect the opposite would inevitably occur.Animals are forced fed to make them put on as much weight as possible in the littlest time as possible,so food which could have been given to countries in the third world is fed to animals so that people can continue eating meat,so ineffect the act of eating meat contributes to the worlds poverty, disease and starvation problem.If fewer people ate meat then the number of animals that are bred solely for that purpose would obviously be less so there would not be a population boost of these animals.So if enough people became vegetarians we would not only be decreasing the number of animals slaughtered but also we would be helping countries of the third world reducing starvation poverty and disease.

If you do want to give up eating meat there is no set pattern to go about it.I personnaly found it easy but then again you may not,it is basically up to the individual.If you find it hard then try to eat less and less meat eat each meal until you have overcome the desire for it.There are hundreds of other alternative foods that you can eat and once you have stopped eating meat you'll be suprised at how many varietys there are.Animalsubstances find there way in a lot of foods you probably thought you could eat,so be careful when you buy biscuits,butter,sweets,cakes and even jelly these all have animal substances in t them so check the ingrediants you can buy bisciuts butter etc without animal fat. Make sure you eat the proper kinds of food,if you know any vegetarians you could ask their advice on certain types of food.Its handy if you live near a health shop for there you'll be able to buy food that has'nt got chemicals in them and and artificial substances.Just because you have given up meat doesn't mean that you live on vegtables all your life use your imagination and experiment.There are substitutes for meat such as soya,but once you havn't tasted meat for sometime this could put you off as it does taste like it.Remember to always have a properly balanced diet.

Anyway if you are seriously thinking about becoming a vegetarian why not give it a try,it feels good to eat a meal without dead flesh stareing at you.If your not then I've failed in convincing you that meat does mean murder,so please think again we may not stop the slaughter today but at least its a start.

PSYCHO FACTION

EVERY TIME I THINK I'M HAVING GOVERNMENT I THINK IT'S THE ATOM BOMB & I'LL SOON BE DEAD"

PSYCHO FACTION are an exellent band from Cumbria, they are SEAN (vox), GROTSKY (gtr, voc), BUTTY (bass), RICKY (drums). They are worth seeing live, they have great songs with weird vocals, very intriguing, and very TUNEFUL

GROTSKY RICKY SEAN

WHAT SORT OF REACTION DOES YOUR MUSIC PROVOKE? Well, when we play at Cleator Moor, we usually go down well with piles of dancing & we've often been shouted back for more. Lyrically we provoke a good reaction too, cos a lot of peopleask us about our views & we like to provoke thought. We argue our principles & viewpoints in our everyday lifejust as much & I know for a fact that we've encouraged 6-7 bands to form (some are actually better musically than us now), but we're not big headed

WHAT DO YOU MEAN BY 'ANARCHY'? Different members of the band have different ideas of what 'it' is, but we all unite in the fact that change IS needed, but will not & cannot happen overnight, so we try to highlight injustice through our songs, we believe there is hope, I (Sean) believe in nihilism too because we've to break down systems of sexism, violence, work ethic, class systems, religion - all 'great' Brittish institutions - before change can occur.

WHY THE NAME? No real reason, we just wanted a name that would be original & stand out, we're not going to pretend it stands for anything, but if anyone thinks it does that's fine by us as long as they don't think we're fascist or any shit like that!

WHEN YOU SAY 'PROUD TO BE PUNK' WHAT DO YOU MEAN PRECISELY? 'P.T.B.P.' means we have pride in what we are a part of, we aren't ashamed of our beliefs, punk has always meant to us a different way of life than the social norms of marriage etc. Punk to us means thinking for yourself respect for others.

Punk as far as we're concerned can be played whatever way anyone wants.. we are punk & we'd like to see more people saying they are too, it might be hip to slag off punk, but fuck them live your own life.. BE PROUD AND PUNK!

ARE ANY OF THE BAND VEGETARIANS? Yes, 3 of us are-Grotsky, Ricky & Sean. All for our own reasons, basically because we like animals & life & despise pain, suffering & death of any living creature.

"RADIATION CONTAMINATION" IS ABOUT WINDSCALE, WHAT'S IT LIKE HAVING SUCH A THREATSO NEAR WHERE YOU LIVE? Well, it's pretty scary, because a meltdown of the reactors could cause a fallout which would come silently, we wouldn't hear it or smell it either, so depending on the wind direction every thing in its path would die. Also, Windscale kills; quite a lot of workers have died of leukemia, which they have contracted from working there, offhand, within 2 miles of my home I can think of 2 people who died of leukemia after working at Windscale. Leukemia is a terrible disease, but Windscale is THE disease.

"RadIATioN CONTaMINatiONI"

They pour into their red boxes like deaf dumb and blind oxes on to windscales nuclear production line they think theyll be fine their lives dont meen nothin windscales or sellafield puts them in coffins oh no its really safe they lie they know we cant see with eyes the radiations not see-thru substance burning hot CH. Out it comes thru the nuclear seive and were expected to live in this radiation contamination. They make your body cancer sick fallout becomes a shortening wick even now people are contaminated but thrir consciences arent weighted shut it down before its to late or maybe were left doomed with our fate the waste goes into the irish sea so keep out of yhe water at st bees they keep covering up the leaks cos they expect us to be weak why!dont they let us be free and get into alternate energy out it comes thru the nuclear seive and were expected to live in this radiation contamination.

Varied Viewpoints (Just show it's not all "anarchist" ha!)

"NOT ANOTHER BOMB SONG?" by our Socialist Columnist

This is just a few thoughts & observations on the change of tactics now being employed by the Conservatives to combat the rising popularity if C.N.D.

Recently the govt have refused to take part in a massive public debate which was to have been staged in the Albert Hall for the feeble reason that a) C.N.D. supporters are in a minority. b) C.N.D. members & their supporters are so bigotted that anything the govt say will be a pointless waste of time (no comment) c) C.N.D. & their supporters are naive & silly if they think Russia isn't a howling mad rabid dog waiting to rip out the West's throat.

The Conservatives have now started a 'smear' campaign directed at the members & supporters if C.N.D. The govt is acting like a little child, who when it knows it can't win resorts to calling its opponants 'pathetic' and 'hurtful' names. An example is the portrayal of the Greenham Commen Women who are being presented by the govt backed media as "neurotic middle class social". This is a deliberate attempt to isolate C.N.D. from the ordinary people.

Another example of comments made by no-hope m.p.'s like Winston Churchill and a few more, who have called C.N.D. members naive. One m.p. even referred to the Greenham Common women as 'these silly women'.

The ultimate in stupid remarks, though, comes from someone who should really know better Michael Heseltine (secreatry of state for defence), otherwise known as Tarzan and Hazlenut, who when commenting on the mass 'die-in' in George Square Glasgow, said: 'Even the most superficial of observers will notice that the self-appointed dead are freeto get up and off to the nearest pub to plan their next eye-catching substitue for rational argument" Quite good, but he misses the point that in a REAL WAR these people would be dead, as would the cameraman who filmed the event; Hazlenut wouldn't be, he'd be nice & safe in his bunker. Onto the rational argument jibe, it was he who regused to debate the issue not us.

You only have to think about that bogey man of Western Democracy, The Berlin Wall to realise that lives don't matter, but power does.

The govt insist that nuclear weapons are necessary to keep the Rabid Red Hoardes at bay, hence that most nauseating of captilast slogans, 'better dead than red'.

They only care about their own lives and the retention of their power. If lives mattered, they would build fallout shelters for everyone for evermore.

WASTED

As the mist rises above the battlefield... the first scene of the horrors that took place
come into view.....
The decapitated limbs...torn and crushed bodies
Now just lumps of red decaying flesh.
Flesh that once lived and breathed as we do now reduced to some hideous spectacle, for the power-crazed leaders to laugh at and glorify.
This useless slaughter is their way of becoming richer and more powerful.
Whilst wives and children suffer with the only knowlegde that their husbands, brothers, sons died as heroes.
What's heroic about shooting or blowing somone up?
Because you were told to do so?
War has become a part of man's nature.
Where will it stop? Or when will it stop?
We will only be satisfied when we have totally destroyed life on this planet.

SAY NO TO THE USE OF FORCE TO PROTECT

RAPE is the foremost fantasy in our society! Sometimes subtley, maby explicitly, it is expressed in most of the songs, films and books about heterosexual love. Switch on the radio to catch lines like 'I'm gonna win you baby, no matter what it takes." A simple but striking example appears in most of those old black and white films; A man and woman are arguing. She is beautiful and he is determined. The arguement progresses till she turns to walk away. He grabs her and kisses her till her struggles subside and she melts to his embrace. Although this was only a kiss, the pattern is there, the man forces the woman to submit to him sexually, - and she loves it.

When women wear low cut tops or short skirts, they know that men will look at them, even leer at them. The men in turn discuss her assets with their mates and say how they wouldn't mind showing her a thing or two.

Any woman would need to be pretty dumb or niave if she didn't realize the kind of reaction she caused with men when she dresses scantily. Dressed that way a woman may conciously or subconciously want to appear attractive or sexy to men. The way men see it is a bit more raw - she wants a good fuck.

It's all very well arguing that people should be allowed to dress as they please, but in a sick society, such as our's, It's not always safe.

If a woman is hitch-hiking or enters a pub alone, or even just goes for a walk by herself, she is doing something 'nice girls don't do.' If a woman in any of these situations gets raped her attacker will probably not be convicted. In the eyes of the law she was 'asking for it' by being alone.

Some rapists said of their victims "She thought she was too good for anyone, so I decided to prove her wrong."

In the eyes of rapists women are either a 'bad girl' who 'asked for it' or a 'nice girl' who needed it. Women are either touchable or untouchable - either way they are eligible for rape.

High heels and short skirts are not practical clothes. They are part of the bondage imposed on women by society. Women are expected to serve men in the home, in hospitals, at work, bear their children, clean up after them generally and serve their sexual needs. Some men think this extends to their right to persuade a woman to give sex - or simply take it. The Bible and the marriage vows concur with this. Women are men's sexual(and in every other way) slaves.

Rape is a violent crime against women by men. To stop rape happenning, both men and women need to change their attitudes. Women don't have to portray themselves as sex objects. What you wear goes a long way to expressing how you want people to see you. Men could try to see women as individual people, not mobile sex units. We could all change sexist attitudes and ask other people to be more thoughtful in their language and actions.

Of course women could simply learn self-defence, but that is not getting at the root of the problem which is society itself. Women are not naturally subordinate nor men naturally dominant. If each of us changed our own self - it would be a short step toward changing society.

(Buzzer (spacefilla)

HOW COOL YOU LOOK, WITH THOSE CLOTHES, YES YOU..GOD, I WISH I COULD LOOK LIKE YOU! YES YOU, YOU'RE SO INDIVIDUAL, HEY BUT THERE'S SOMEONE OVER THERE WHO'S WEARING JUST THE SAME SORT OF CLOTHES AS YOU, THE SAME HAIR CUT, EVERYTHING..AND YOU GO OUT EVERY FREEDAY NIGHT AND TRY TO LOOK LIKE YOUR HEROES SO THAT YOU IMPRESS PEOPLE OF THE OPPOSITE SEX..I WAS WRONG, YOU'RE JUST A CLONE.

YOU MAY HAVE DIFFERENT NAMES, YOU MAY HAVE DIFFERENT FACES-BUT REALLY YOU'RE ALL THE SAME. YOU HAVE NO ORIGINALITY WHICH IS NOT DICTATED BY THE MEDIA AND THE MUSIC PRESS. YOU SEE SOME JERK POSING AROUND ON 'TOP OF THE POPS' AND SO YOU THINK 'HEY THAT'S REALLY COOL'. SO YOU GO OUT AND SPEND ABOUT £100 PERFECTING THE SAME LOOK AS YOUR IDOLS. THEN YOU LOOK AROUND AND SEE ALL YOUR FRIENDS LOOK JUST THE SAME! NOW THAT'S REALLY COOL! AND LOOK AT ALL THOSE SQUARES WHO DON'T LOOK LIKE YOU, DON'T DRESS LIKE YOU, DON'T THINK LIKE YOU, DON'T EVEN LIKE YOUR HIP IDOLS! WHAT FUCKING SQUARES!! KICK THE BASTARDS HEAD IN ! TAKE THE PISS OUT OF THE SQUARE BASTARDS!

JUST BECAUSE THEY HAVE SEPARATE IDENTITY TO YOUR OWN, WHICH ISN'T IN THE LEAST INDIVIDUAL. YOU HATE ANYONE WHO'S AN INDIVIDUAL BECAUSE THEY SHOW YOU WHAT YOU AREN'T, WHAT YOU COULD BE, BUT IT'S FAR COOLER TO BE 'PART OF THE CROWD', ISN'T IT? IT'S EASIER, JUST HAVE FAITH IN ALL THE FIGURES OF THE ESTABLISHMENT; RELIGION, GOVERNMENT..DON'T TALK ABOUT THEM, BUT DON'T PROTEST OR DOUBT THEM, BECAUSE ONE DAY YOU'RE GOING TO BE PART OF THAT AREN'T YOU?

AND SOON, YOUR COOL CLOTHES GIVE WAY TO MORE CONVENTIONAL CLOTHES..AND SO NOW INSTEAD OF JUST PUTTING UP WITH THE ESTABLISHMENT, YOU'RE NOW PART OF IT. HAVE KIDS, SETTLE DOWN, Y'KNOW IT'S A GOOD LIFE, THERE'S NOTHING WRONG WITH BEING A CLONE, IS THERE?

TRENDY, COOL, HIP, YES THAT'S YOU..YOU JOKER. YOU DENY OUR FREEDOM BY YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THE SOCIAL SYSTEM. YOUR TOLERANCE AND IGNORANCE OF EVERYTHING THAT DOESN'T EFFECT YOUR COOLNESS IS SO BLINDING AND BLATENT. YOU DON'T GIVE A FUCK ABOUT PEOPLE STARVING IN UNDER PRIVELIGED COUNTRIES, YOU DON'T GIVE A DAMN ABOUT INCREASING POLICE POWERS. IN SHORT YOU JUST DON'T CARE AS LONG AS IT DOESN'T EFFECT YOU. YOU ARE TOTALLY PARASITIC. ADMIT IT, YOU, YOU, I CAN'T VOICE MY DESPISAL OF YOUR 'IT MAKES NO DIFFERENCE TO ME' - [redacted] ATTITUDE.

'PLEASE LEAVE US ALONE AND LET US LIVE OUR OWN LIVES' (flux)

"You shone light on our naiveté and helped us to open our minds... We start to think beyond your vision, deviate from your dream.... So you shit on our hopes, stifle our progress... it didn't work, our strength grew, where others were trampled into line.... WHO'S LAUGHING NOW?"

Establishment Vampires

SPACES? Listen smart arse - I've run out of ideas so stop whinging!

You've got your mortgage
You've got your family
You've got your insurance
And, you've got your fallout shelter
You've got your possessions
You've got your profession
You've got to be respectable
You always were bispectacled.

You're the finger on the button
You know where all the money goes
(and have the secretary every monday)
Because you're a public-spirited citizen.

You visit the looney bins
To make sure we're all in place
So no one susses you out...
Not even the 'little' wife!
You make sure the country's developed into an industrial suicide
You control vivisection
No cruelty, you say, after inspect

You've got your mortgage
You've got your fluff every saturday night
You've got an ulcer
that hurts when you shite
Your collegues think well of you
As you suck them
Establishment vampire.

BECOME A CAPITALIST LIKE ALL SORTS OF OTHER PROBLEMS SLOWLY UCCERS KIDS MORTGAGES AND FINANCIAL INSECURITY SO DESPITE THEIR INSURANCE AND RUNNING THE SYSTEM BECAUSE INDIVIDUAL CLONES TO FORM A CLICHE BANKS ETC THEIR EMPIRE ARE NO
